

ACCREDITATION AND INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

The Higher Learning Commission

Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®) is accredited through the Higher Learning Commission (HLC). Current information regarding the College's accreditation is available on Tri-C's Accreditation web page. Documents describing the institution's accreditation and state licensure are made available to all current and prospective students upon request. Contact the Office of Learning and Engagement at 216-987-3464 for further information.

Information about filing student complaints can be found on the Higher Learning Commission and Ohio Department of Higher Education websites. These institutions may require the student to exercise any appeal procedures at the College prior to accepting a complaint. Please visit the appropriate website for the most current guidance on filing a complaint.

The HLC office is located at 230 S. LaSalle St., Suite 7-500, Chicago, IL 60602-1411. Call 800-621-7440 or visit the Higher Learning Commission website for more information.

Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education

Tri-C is a member of the Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education. The council is comprised of 14 Northeast Ohio colleges and universities as well as business and industrial organizations in the business and industrial community.

Established in 1951, the council works to address the common needs and problems of higher education in Northeast Ohio.

Tri-C holds institutional memberships in numerous national, educational, professional and accrediting organizations as well as local chambers of commerce. In addition, a number of Tri-C's career programs are approved or accredited by appropriate specialized associations or agencies.
