

TRIO STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES (SSS)

The TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) program promotes high academic achievement for eligible students. Qualified participants include U.S. citizens or permanent residents who are income-eligible and first-generation college students with a need for academic support services. Participants receive one-stop support services at the Eastern, Metropolitan and Western campuses and the Brunswick University Center (BUC) through graduation and/or transfer to a four-year institution. Students may participate in only one campus SSS program.

Services include:

- Academic and financial aid review
- Tutoring
- Study groups
- Career exploration
- Transfer assistance
- Technology assistance
- Cultural activities
- Referrals

SSS is funded by the U.S. Department of Education and Cuyahoga Community College. Call your campus SSS office or visit the SSS webpage for more information.
