ZFIN-0595 Enrolled Agent Intensive Exam Prep Boot Camp (without materials) 19 CEUs

Enrolled agents are licensed by the federal government and have demonstrated special competence in tax matters and professional ethics. They can practice before the IRS anywhere in the United States.

At least one to two seasons of tax preparation experience and a basic understanding of tax accounting and accrual accounting is recommended before taking this class. This innovative program allows students to participate via WebEx and log in to the online portal for interactive content and practice exams. The course prepares participants to pass the IRS Special Enrollment Exams (SEE). Class sessions are structured based on the Gleim System for Success and require (at minimum) 15 to 20 hours of studying per week outside of class. The SEE is a three-part exam administered by Prometric on behalf of the IRS. Participants must successfully pass all three parts to receive IRS-EA certification. We strongly suggest that participants register for part one of the SEE (Individuals) to obtain their PTIN through the IRS before enrolling in this course.

ZFIN-1054 Bookkeeping Administration Certification (Online) 28 CEUs

This online course provides an introduction to the concepts and uses of accounting in a business environment. The primary areas of study include analysis of business transactions; recording procedures and the use of ledgers and journals; accounting for sales and purchases; managing cash, payroll, accruals and deferrals; and preparation and analysis of basic financial statements. Learn to use QuickBooks Online Plus by completing two monthly accounting cycles. Payroll preparation and creating a new company will also be covered. While no prior QuickBooks knowledge is required, students taking this course should have some familiarity with the accounting cycle and how it relates to a business. While the reading requirements are light, the majority of this extensive, hands-on course consists of drill exercises and related practice activities and quizzes based on the knowledge gained from completing each chapter.

ZFIN-1169 Apr. 25, 2025: Overview of the FLSA (Fair Labor Standards Act)
0.15 CEUs

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) establishes minimum wage, overtime pay, recordkeeping, and youth employment standards affecting employees in the private sector and in Federal, State, and local governments. Covered nonexempt workers are entitled to a minimum wage of not less than $7.25 per hour effective July 24, 2009. Overtime pay at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay is required after 40 hours of work in a workweek. As an employee you should understand your rights and how your pay is calculated. As an employer, it is your responsibility to ensure that all employees are being paid correctly under the FLSA to be compliant. We will examine what is covered and not under the FLSA and look at the various coverage and exemptions under the act.

0.15 CEUs

When most of us received our very first paycheck we were likely very surprised to see that the hours we worked multiplied by our hourly rate was not the amount of our paycheck. Have you wondered exactly how your paycheck is calculated? Do you want to know the difference between Social Security and Medicare taxes? Pre-tax versus post-tax deductions? How Salary versus Hourly employees are paid? What deductions are permissible by law from your pay? While we all wish our gross pay and net pay could be equal, it's important to understand the purpose behind each deduction and have a good understanding of how your pay is calculated and how your taxes and deductions are processed and reported.
