NURSE AIDE TRAINING (ZNAT)

ZNAT-1000 State Tested Nursing Assistant Training Program
10.8-120 CEUs

If you are a caring individual who enjoys helping people, the STNA position is for you. Working with patients who need your assistance and care will provide a sense of purpose at work. Are you looking for a rewarding career where you are able to help others live a more fulfilling life? If so, train for this in-demand health career through our Ohio Department of Health approved training program. After completion of this class, you will be qualified to work in nursing homes, hospitals, home care, hospice, assisted living, and as independent providers. Register Today with Tri-C!
Contact hours: 108
Not financial aid eligible.

ZNAT-1006 Train the Trainer: Become a STNA Instructor
2.8 CEUs

This 28-hour course prepares nurses to coordinate and/or teach the ODH state-approved Nurse Aide Training and Competency Evaluation Program (NATCEP). Benefits of TTT program Identify qualifications of the PC, PI and guest lecturers. Demonstrate understanding of the typical nursing assistant's level of training ability and major job duties. Identify effects of stress on learning, testing and techniques that can be used to manage stress. Apply training strategies and techniques to work with diverse students. Describe the differences between non-facility and facility based TCEP. Identify ways to prepare trainees for the competency evaluation through objective and skills tests. Describe how to assess the training environment and utilize techniques to enhance the training experience. Organize, develop and individualize a TCEP topic area. Describe TCEP standards. Instruct how to design a TCE Program. Define the components of clinical teaching. Describe ways to maintain and organize TCEP, content and resources. Describe the use, considerations, advantages and limitations of various teaching styles. Define and describe the function of skills testing. Identify who may administer a skills test. Describe the steps used to decide which skills to test. Describe general principles of the program evaluation. Provide examples of formative and summative evaluation. Identify types of evaluation instruments. Describe basic structure and basic training approach in presenting classroom subject matter. Analyze and recount state law and federal regulations.
Contact hours: 28
Not financial aid eligible.

ZNAT-1013 State Tested Nursing Assistant (Accelerated)
8.8-120 CEUs

If you are a caring individual who enjoys helping people, the STNA position is for you. Working with patients who need your assistance and care will provide a sense of purpose at work. Are you looking for a rewarding career where you are able to help others live a more fulfilling life? If so, train for this in-demand health career through our Ohio Department of Health approved training program. After completion of this class, you will be qualified to work in nursing homes, hospitals, home care, hospice, assisted living, and as independent providers. Register Today with Tri-C!
Contact hours: 100
Not financial aid eligible.