

ART FACULTY

Cook, Blake

Assistant Professor

blake.cook@tri-c.edu

(216) 987-2095

Department: Creative Arts: Art

Office Location: Eastern Campus, EEC, Room 136

Education: B.F.A in Painting, Edinboro University
M.F.A. in Painting and Sculpture, Indiana University of PA

About: Blake Cook received a BFA in Painting from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania and an MFA in Painting and Sculpture from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. After Graduate School he took a full-time position as Assistant Director of Visual Arts with the Three Rivers Arts Festival in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. In 1997 he accepted a position as director of New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art. As well as continuing to fulfill his responsibilities as director of the gallery, Cook also taught art at the University of Southern Indiana. In the fall of 2001, Cook accepted a position as faculty coordinator for the Art Department at Cuyahoga Community College, Eastern Campus. He continues to produce art, creating drawings, video, photography, sculpture and installations. He currently lives in Saybrook, Ohio with his wife Ann Marie and three sons.

Craig, Stephanie

Associate Professor

stephanie.craig@tri-c.edu ()

(216) 987-5655

Department: Creative Arts: Art

Office Location: Western Campus, WHCS A112

Education: B.A., University of Toronto
B.Ed., The University of British Columbia
M.F.A., Edinboro University

About: Stephanie Craig teaches ceramics, 3D foundation and sculpture classes at Tri-C's Western Campus and is the co-director of the campus art gallery. In addition to teaching, Craig maintains an active studio practice and busy exhibition schedule. Recently, Craig was awarded her second Individual Excellence Award from the Ohio Arts Council (2015, 2008). In 2011, she received Cleveland's prestigious CPAC Creative Workforce Fellowship. She has also been a finalist for the Zanesville Prize for Contemporary Ceramics and was a featured "Emerging Artist" in Ceramics Monthly, with her sculpture showcased on the cover of the magazine. Craig has been an artist-in-residence at Medalta in Medicine Hat, Alberta (2014), at Watershed Center for the Ceramic Arts in Maine (2013), and at Guldagergaard International Ceramic Research Center in Denmark (2011). Craig holds an MFA from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. To view examples of her artwork and for more information, please visit www.StephanieCraig.net.

Green, Sharlene

Associate Professor

sharlene.green@tri-c.edu

216-987-5056

Department: Creative Arts: Art

Office Location: Western Campus, B136

Education: MFA in Painting, Miami University

BFA in Graphic Design and Illustration, Kent State University

About: Sharlene Pearl Green has been teaching since 1990. She currently teaches Life Drawing I and II, Portrait Drawing and Painting, and Painting I and II. Green has also taught Watercolor and Special Topics in Painting Techniques, including egg tempera and encaustic painting. In addition to her duties as an art professor, Green serves as the Visual Arts counterparts chair. She has lectured and given demonstrations in drawing and painting techniques at various institutions in Northeast Ohio.

As an artist, Green works primarily with the human figure and landscape and has worked in a variety of media. For nearly 40 years, she has exhibited her work in galleries throughout Ohio and the United States. Green has received numerous awards for her drawings and paintings, and her work is included in various public and private collections.

Katz, Clarissa

Associate Professor

clarissa.katz@tri-c.edu

216-987-2587

Department: Art

Office Location: Eastern Campus, EEC 102

Education: MFA in Painting, Michigan State University

BA in Fine Arts and Philosophy of Religion, Alfred University

About: Clarissa Katz is a figurative painter who uses color, pattern and the expressive language of paint to present the human form, both physically and psychologically. Her paintings have been exhibited numerous times in national juried exhibitions, including the Brooklyn Waterfront Artists Coalition in Brooklyn, New York; Gallery 263 in Cambridge, Massachusetts; Union Street Gallery in Chicago Heights, Illinois; and the First Street Gallery in New York City. Locally, her work has been exhibited at the Valley Art Center in Chagrin Falls; the Trudy Wiesenberger Gallery at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center; YWCA Mahoning Valley in Youngstown; and the "NewNow" exhibition hosted by Artists Archives of the Western Reserve in 2021. Katz also had solo art exhibitions at Penn State Altoona and Michigan State University in 2015 and 2018, respectively. She currently teaches painting, drawing and 2D design courses at the Eastern Campus. You can view images of Katz's artwork at her website: ClarissaRKatz.com.

Wolken, Christine

Associate Professor

christine.wolken@tri-c.edu (christine.woolken@tri-c.edu)

(216) 987-5645

Department: Creative Arts: Art

Office Location: Western Campus, WBT C225

Education: B.A., John Carroll University

M.A., John Carroll University

Ph.D., Case Western Reserve University

About: Christine Wolken currently teaches courses in art appreciation and art history at Tri-C's Western Campus. Dr. Wolken also teaches the Tri-C art appreciation course at the Cleveland Museum of Art, where students are able to utilize the museum's world-renowned collection. Dr. Wolken earned her Ph.D. in Art History from Case Western Reserve University and her MA in Humanities from John Carroll University. Dr. Wolken's area of expertise is early modern art in Italy. Her specific research interests focus on art and women, and women patrons in Italy c. 1500-1600.

Woolwine, Taylor

Assistant Professor

taylor.woolwine@tri-c.edu

(216) 987-5480

Department: Creative Arts: Art

Office Location: Western Campus, WHCS A108

Education: B.F.A., Columbus College of Art and Design

M.F.A., Indiana University

About: Taylor Woolwine teaches drawing classes at Tri-C's Western Campus. He received a BFA in Fine Arts from the Columbus College of Art and Design and an MFA in Painting from Indiana University. Parallel to teaching, Woolwine maintains a studio in Ohio City and actively exhibits work. His paintings and drawings utilize an array of subject matter to investigate issues of perception, space, and image-making. Woolwine's works belong to private collections across the country and have been exhibited regionally and nationally. He was an artist-in-residence at Manifest Gallery in Cincinnati (2014-15) and Lux Center for the Arts in Lincoln, NE (2018-19), both of which culminated in solo exhibitions. Prior to this position at Tri-C, Woolwine taught at several colleges including the Art Academy of Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky University, and Concordia University. Website: taylorwoolwine.com
