

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

---

Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®) offers numerous noncredit Community Education programs and courses spanning a wide range of career development, personal enrichment and continuing education topics for all ages. Courses are convenient, affordable, entertaining and high quality to promote individual development and improve one's overall quality of life from youth through late adulthood.

Learn more about personal enrichment and community education offerings.