

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®) offers numerous noncredit Community Education programs and courses spanning a wide range of career development, personal enrichment and continuing education topics for all ages. These high-quality courses promote individual development and improve one's overall quality of life from youth through late adulthood. Best of all, they're convenient, affordable and fun!

Learn more about personal enrichment and community education offerings.