

CLEVELAND CODES TRI-C SOFTWARE DEVELOPERS ACADEMY

Program description

Cleveland Codes is a hybrid IT fast-track training program that offers a flexible and engaging approach to learning. Over 14 weeks, students will build skills necessary to pursue a career in web application and development while learning to program in C# within the .NET framework. Students in the program will take Microsoft Technology Associate (MTA) certification exams in HTML/CSS (98-383), JavaScript (98-382), Database Fundamentals (98-364) and Software Development Fundamentals (98-361).

Other important information

Students develop key skills in:

- Object Oriented Programming
- Back-end and Front-end Web Development
- Microsoft SQL Server
- Technical Interviewing and Career Development

Program cost

The course cost is $4,500 and covers all program supplies, certification exams and instruction. Students may officially enroll into the Cleveland Codes Tri-C Software Developers Academy after receiving an acceptance notification.

Upon completion students receive

Certificate of Completion

Related programs/training

- Information Technology (Programming and Development)
- Introduction to Web Design with HTML5
- Advanced Web Design with JavaScript
- Digital Marketing Bootcamp

Visit the Cleveland Codes Tri-C Software Developers Academy website to register or learn more about the program.