

COMPTIA ONLINE CERTIFICATES (PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT)

Program description

For more than 25 years, the Computing Technology Industry Association (CompTIA) has offered vendor-neutral certifications for IT professionals across all industries and experience levels. These certifications have helped thousands of people attain new skills and professional growth in the IT field.

The statistics bear out the value of a CompTIA certification:

- 70% of IT professionals and 93% of hiring managers believe IT certifications are beneficial.
- 58% of organizations believe certified IT staff are more valuable, and 53% believe certified IT staff perform better.
- Among certified IT employees, nearly half believe they are better at insightful problem-solving, and more than a third agree they are more able to understand new and complex technologies.
- CompTIA-certified IT professionals earn more than $70,000 per year on average.
