

STUDENT LIFE

Tri-C recognizes the educational and social value of a well-integrated program of student activities.

Student Life offers a variety of programs and services to enhance students' overall social, cultural and educational growth by promoting learning and development outside the classroom. These programs are designed to promote maximum interaction among and between students, faculty and staff. Activities may vary each semester based on scheduling, availability and student feedback. Activities, Clubs and Organizations

Every student is welcome to participate in a variety of activities ranging from Student Government, clubs and organizations, cocurricular programming and leadership development. Opportunities include student leadership certification, etiquette training, lectures, entertainment and various educational programs. Student organizations cover a wide spectrum of interests in order to meet student needs. The Pantry

The Pantry is an on-campus resource that assists students in their pursuit of success at Tri-C. The Pantry provides free access to nonperishable food, personal hygiene and cleaning products for students enrolled in at least one Tri-C course. Students can present their Stomp Card to access the Pantry once a week. Visit the Pantry web page for more details.

Student Government

Student Government provides a voice for all Tri-C students. Each campus has its own Student Government. A Collegewide governing body, the Joint Student Council, comprises the Student Government president and vice president from each campus and the Board Student Scholar. Students who demonstrate exceptional leadership ability may be recognized with special awards and stipends. Students interested in Student Government and other governance opportunities should contact the Student Life office on their campus. Visit the Student Government web page for more information.

Student Newspaper: The Voice

Tri-C's student newspaper, The Voice, publishes Collegewide information from each of the four campuses. Students interested in joining the newspaper staff or contributing articles should email Jimi Izrael (jimi.izrael@tri-c.edu).
